

Cave Quiz

Name: _____

1. Which of the following would be an example of a cave adaptation? (DOK 1)

- Large, bright spots
- Lack of eye sight
- Large eyes
- Large in size

2. A 5th grade class went on a field trip to a local cave. In the cave they saw a cave species that was whitish in color and small in size. Predict what zone of the cave the animal observed and support your reasoning why. (DOK 2)

---

---

---

---

3. A group of home owners are concerned about getting the West Nile Virus from mosquito bites. They would like to hire a company to clear the brush and trees near a cave opening. Develop and support an argument with details and examples of why the brush and trees should remain there. Use the back if necessary. (DOK 3)

---

---

---

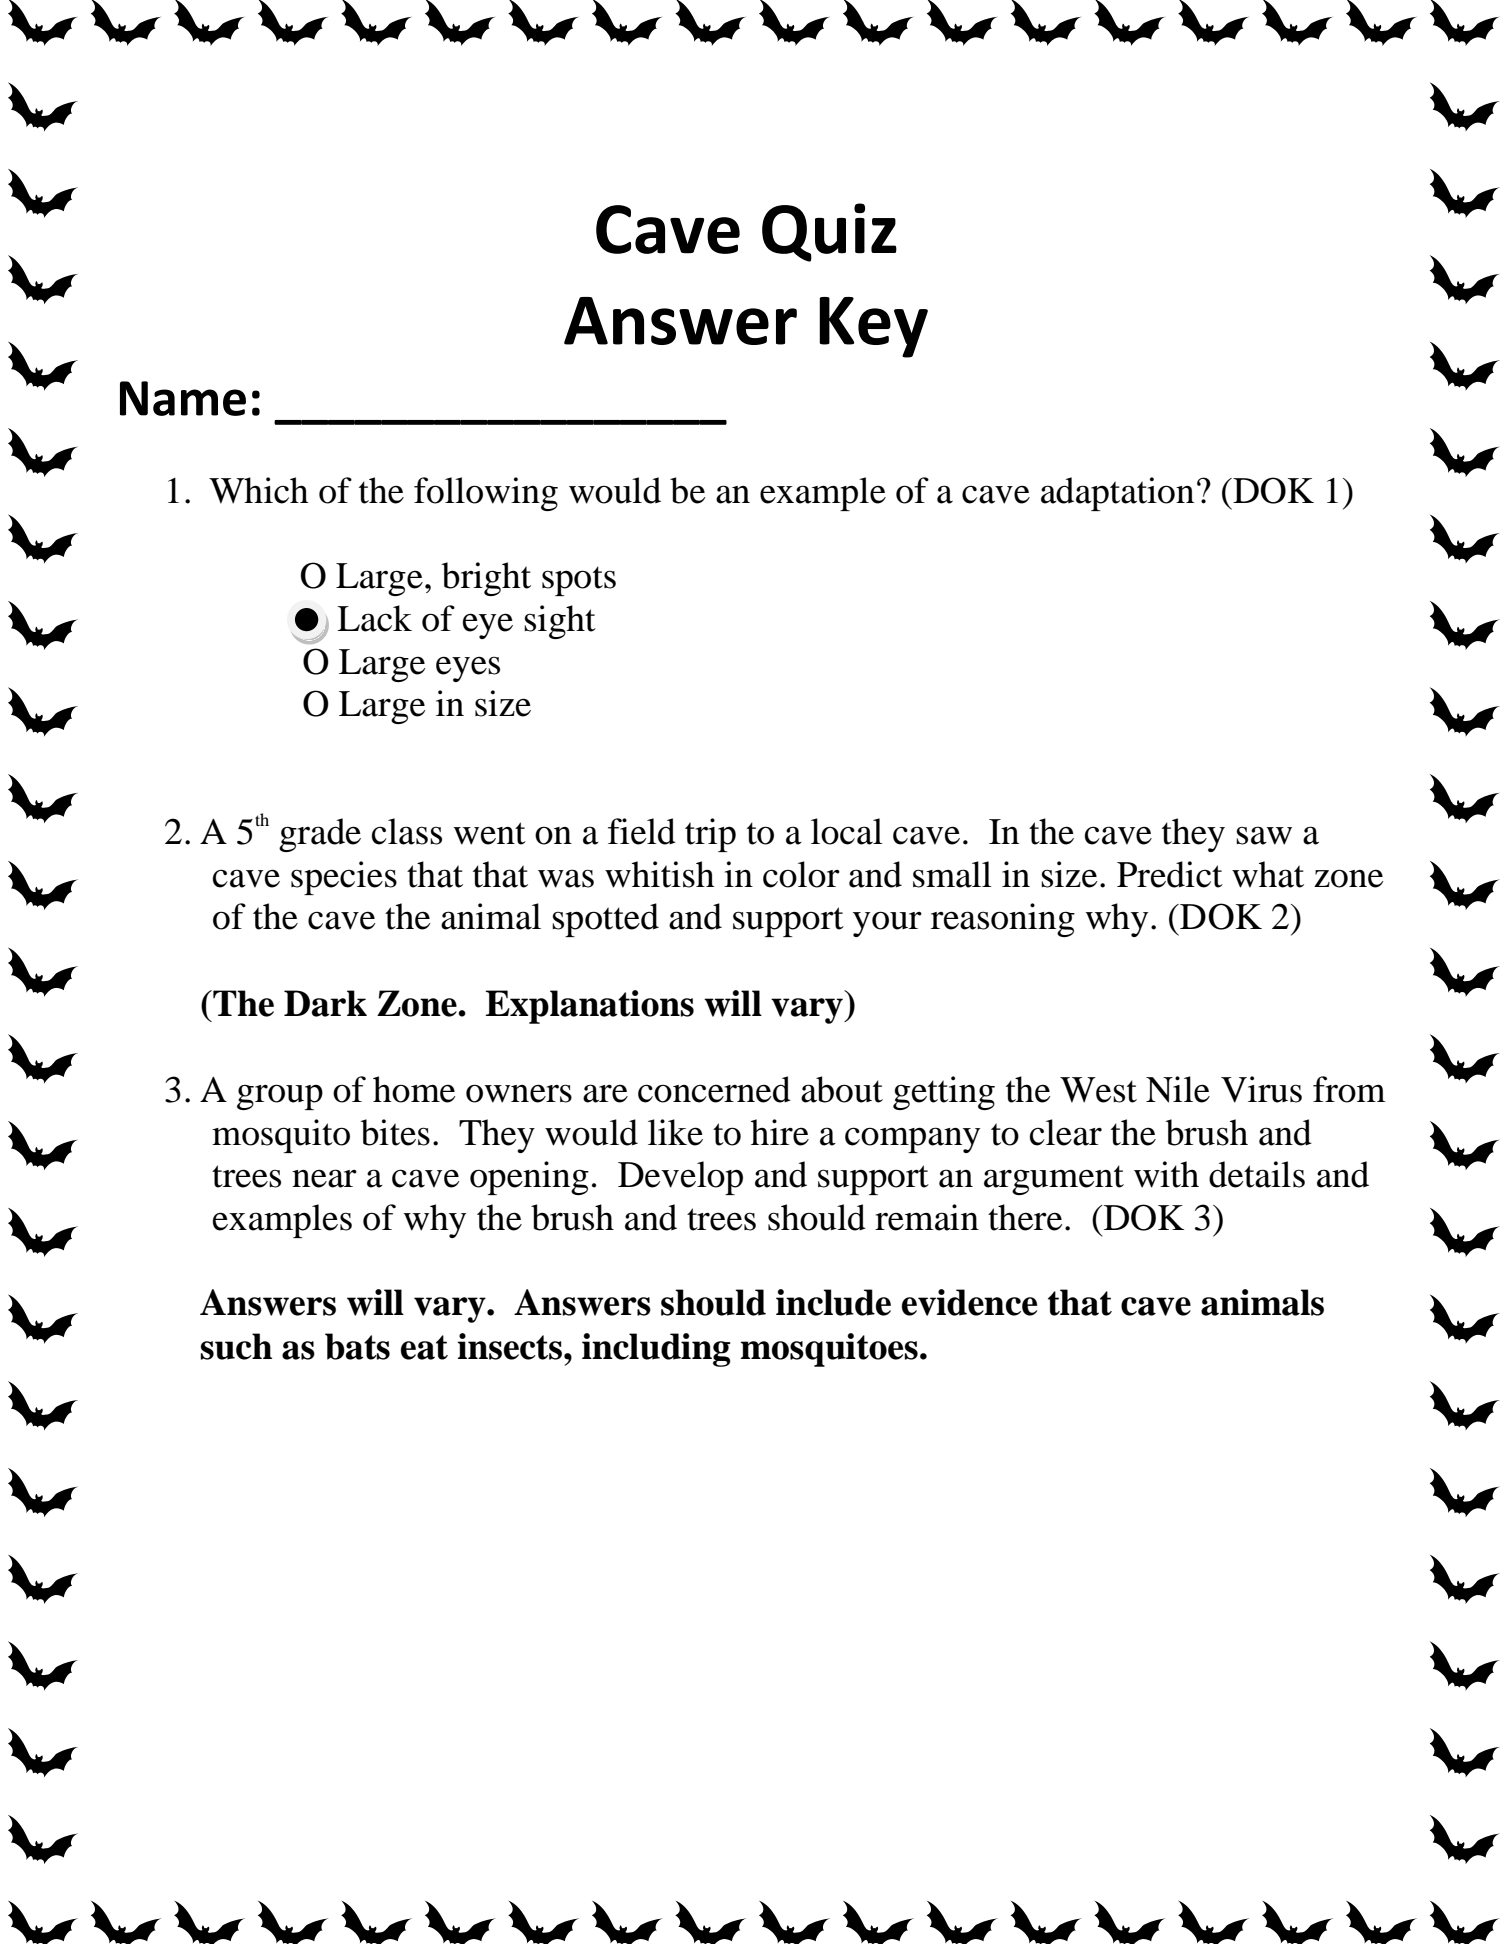

---

---

---

---

---

Cave Quiz Answer Key

Name: _____

1. Which of the following would be an example of a cave adaptation? (DOK 1)

- Large, bright spots
- Lack of eye sight
- Large eyes
- Large in size

2. A 5th grade class went on a field trip to a local cave. In the cave they saw a cave species that that was whitish in color and small in size. Predict what zone of the cave the animal spotted and support your reasoning why. (DOK 2)

(The Dark Zone. Explanations will vary)

3. A group of home owners are concerned about getting the West Nile Virus from mosquito bites. They would like to hire a company to clear the brush and trees near a cave opening. Develop and support an argument with details and examples of why the brush and trees should remain there. (DOK 3)

Answers will vary. Answers should include evidence that cave animals such as bats eat insects, including mosquitoes.